Jerome Taylor

The musically talented and creative Jerome Taylor is a native of Chicago, Illinois born with an unparalleled musical talent and has spent a lifetime perfecting his God-given gift. He began his music studies at the age of 9 years old, then went on to study at the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago, Illinois. During this time he honed his keyboard skills at various churches and clubs throughout the Great Lakes area. In 1972, he entered the Armed Forces and served as Musical Director for the 101st Airborne Division Choir of Fort Campbell, Kentucky and then later was chief organist for the Frankfurt Church of God in Christ in Frankfurt, West Germany. Upon completion of active duty in 1975, Mr. Taylor engaged in extensive studio session work and also played piano and organ for the Ecclesiastes Community Choir of Chicago, Illinois. Mr. Taylor also had the distinct privilege to accompany the 'Father of Gospel Music' Thomas Dorsey in a Chicago, Illinois performance of 'Precious Lord'. In 1989, he migrated to New York to further pursue his musical aspirations. Having studied with the likes of jazz pianists, Joanne Brackeen and Amina Claudine Meyers, he was able to further pursue his dream of being an accomplished accompanist and session musician. In addition to having served as a church musician, he is also a music instructor, having taught hundreds of students his unique method of voicing chords and progressions. He also had the opportunity to transcribe the musical notation featured on the Gospel
